Dear

AFRICA EXPRESS HOUSE RECORDING, SOUTH AFRICA

Thank you for supporting Africa Express in our mission to promote African music. We (Africa Express Limited) appreciate your agreement to perform and be recorded by us for the purposes of releasing an album in both physical and digital download formats. Our aim is to promote a new wave of artists and assist in finding those artists new audiences around the world.

A. In consideration of the payment of £1 receipt of which is hereby acknowledged you hereby give and grant us all necessary consents with regards to making recording(s) of your performance ("the Recordings") and to filming you making those Recordings together with any interviews you may have given ("the Footage") and/or to use the provision of your services as a producer between the 28th January and the 4th February 2018, all in connection with the proposed new Africa Express album (all Recordings, the Footage and photographs to constitute the "Album")

B. You acknowledge that we will own all of the copyrights and other rights in the Recordings, the Footage and any photos we may take of you (the Album), so that we are able to use them throughout the World in all forms, formats, means and media including all forms of broadcasting and communicating with the public whether now known or to be known in the future and in perpetuity. You also confirm that you are happy for us to use your name and approved likenesses in relation to these activities, and for the commercial usage of the Recordings by any means. If relevant and if you are subject to an exclusive recording agreement with a third party record label you hereby agree to procure the consent of your record label to your undertaking and providing recording services and assigning the rights therein to us.

C. If you write any material or any material written by you is featured on the Album you will use your best endeavours to ensure such composition(s) is licensed to us or our licencees at usual statutory rates or procure your music publisher does the same. It is agreed that unless you agree otherwise with other performers and/or songwriters (and notify us of such immediately) then all contributions to any sound recording and any original song shall be equal as between the songwriters and/or the performers.

D. Africa Express is committed to supporting music in Africa. Should sales or other commercial use of the Album produce a net profit to Africa Express limited after the recoupment of all related costs, then we have agreed those net profits will be applied to the promotion of African music and its artists, in our discretion. This could mean additional sums for the artists involved in the recordings.

We greatly appreciate your commitment to this trip and to Africa Express, and would ask you to please confirm these terms by signing and returning the enclosed copy of this letter.

This Agreement shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the laws and courts of England and Wales.
